U.P. Gridders Will Meet Bosses in Negaunee Friday

Negaunee-Two more additions have been made to the U.P. all-star football squads for the North-South game here the night of August 14.

The additions are Weber, of Manistique, for the southern outfit and Loman will wear the colors of the North.

Coach F.L. "Frosty" Ferzacca, and his assistant, Pat Malone of West high school, Green Bay, Wis., will arrive here tomorrow to make preparations for starting practice Saturday for players from the southern section of the U.P.

Harry Conley, Superior, Wis., Central, head North coach, and John McDonald, Park Falls, Wis., who will endeavor to make it three in a row for the North will arrive Friday morning.

Squads are due here Friday and will meet their coaches Friday evening for briefing, after which they will be guests of the game committee at a showing of "Diamond Dust," a new technicolor sound movie. From then on it will be football until the night of the big game.
