

August 7, 1950

The Mining Journal
Marquette, MI

44 Players Report At Negaunee

Negaunee-Forty-four all-star football players went through their third day of drills here today in preparation for the Upper Peninsula dream game Saturday night.

Coaches Vic Wojciovski and Eddie (Speed) Olds have wasted little time in putting the South and North teams, respectively, through stiff drills.

Saturday afternoon drills were confined to limbering up, but Sunday afternoon the stars were sent through tackling drills and were setting about to master plays for the contest.

Those on hand for the game are:

South—Frank Svopoda, Menominee; Axel Anderson, Tom Nault and Buddy Weber, Escanaba; Maurice Larson, Stephenson; James Schram and William Beveridge, Gladstone; Robert Carlson, Manistique; James Devine and Ernest Pardon, Norway; Clayton Choquette, Ronald Holmes, Melvin Holme and Jerry Pangrazzi, Stambaugh; Lyle Reiten and William Thomas, Kingsford; Reynold Banks and Francis Toti, Iron River; Don St. Arnauld, Phil Grispigna and Eugene Taglienti, Iron Mountain.

North—Joel Schmidt, Bessemer; Chester Jeffrey and Raymond Kangas, Hancock; Roy Auvinen and James Arasin, Ironwood; Donald Doney and Eugene Bilkey, Ishpeming; William Mayo and Stanley Dudo, L'Anse; Tom Peters, Steve Petros and Bob Parent, Marquette; Richard Nebel and Jim LeVeque, Munising; Kenneth Jennings and Clarence Rivers, Negaunee; Fred Wood, Jerry Wilkens, Tony Brydon, bob MacDonald and Roy Gustafson, Newberry; August Ostrowski, Ontonagon; Jack Armstrong, Sault Ste. Marie.