FP's Wheeler Named All-State Football Captain

CRYSTAL FALLS - Detroit Free Press announced its 2008 All-State football team and six area standouts were selected.

Forest Park's Jim Wheeler made the team at offensive line for Division 8, earning offensive team captain designation as well. Teammates Marcus Smithson (line) and Tim Martin (line) made the defensive team.

Also in Division 8, North Dickinson's Mike Miller landed at running back. He also earned special mention on the The Associated Press All-State team.

Division 6 saw two Mountaineers honored. Adam Kent made it at offensive line, and Bruce Romagnoli was selected at linebacker.

Upper Peninsula Offensive Player of the Year Pat Flood earned AP all-state accolades.
