Todd Goldbeck named as an official for the WIAA State Tournaments

The Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA) announced the officials for the 2010 State Individual Tournament and State Team Tournament. The Individual State Tournament is held at the Kohl Center on the University of Wisconsin-Madison's campus. The Team State Tournament is held at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Fieldhouse.

Todd Goldbeck, WIAA Master Level official, was named to the officiating crew of the Team State Tournament. Goldbeck, from Madison, will be an on-mat official for the event. This will mark the fourth Team State Tournament for Goldbeck, who has also officiated at the Individual State Tournament twice. In addition to officiating the matches, the on-mat official is responsible for interpreting the rules surrounding the tournament and help make decisions when the application of rules is necessary. Goldbeck also was asked to be the Special Assistant to the WIAA at the Individual State Tournament. This marks the third year he has been asked to be involved in that capacity. Duties include meeting with the on-mat officials prior to the tournament, rules interpretation, inspection of special equipment on the participants, overseeing weigh-ins and ensuring that the tournament generally runs smoothly.
